

Parks & Community Services

Program limited to use by qualifying Watsonville youth (18 years or younger).

The Parks and Community Services Department collaborates with various organizations to offer scholarship opportunities for residents of Watsonville. Applicants are eligible for full (100%) scholarship, partial (80% or 50 % of total cost) scholarship based on income and family size. In the case that program funds are depleted during the year, the scholarship program will be suspended and applications will no longer be accepted until more funding is secured and available.

Qualifications:

Applicants can qualify based on household size and annual gross income.

Income and household size will be verified by the providing the most recent 1040 tax forms and/or verification of participation in low income programs such as CalWorks, EBT, and Free/Reduced School Lunch. If there is a special circumstance and/or additional information you will like to be considered, please attach a letter of explanation. Please note, reviews for special circumstances will delay approval of scholarship.
